Please disregard the portion of the last message about the c of o. I meant to say I found no c of o for a CBRF at this location. There is a c of o #130385 for an apartment building. Sorry for the miscommunication.

Stephanie:

I find no C of O issued for this address. I am going ask our investigations and zoning divisions to look into the matter.

Dear Mr. Brewton, Mr. Palmer, and Mr. Rogers,

I need copies of the following information for 1637 E St NE, Washington, DC 20002 by Monday, June 25, 2007.

Based on information I received and viewed, it is obvious that a community based residential facility is being run out of this facility. It is unclear whether the facility has passed inspection or been inspected by the fire marshall's office. The goals of said facility are further unclear.

My understanding is that a drug treatment facility/boarding house/group home for the mentally challenged is in this location.

I appreciate your speedy response.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Nixon
