Evolve Urban Arts

Evolve Urban Arts Project is proud to announce the opening of an installation of work by Emma Steinkraus. Emma worked briefly as a curatorial assistant at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum in Boston, and now teaches painting in here at the Capitol Hill Arts Workshop and LivingSocial.

All are invited to an opening reception Thursday, March 28 from 5:30-8:30 p.m. Assorted hors d'oeuvres and signature beverages will be paired with select works. The show runs through May 3 at 1375 Maryland Ave. NE.

Meanwhile, the current installation of work by local artist, Anne Marchand will hang at the gallery through March 21. Anne's themes are diverse. She searches landscape, cosmoscape and abstract designs in nature for structure and movement in her compositions.

To view either exhibit, please call 744-6439 for an appointment. Visit <http://art.evolvedc.com>.

Capitol Hill Little League

Registration for the spring softball season closes March 12. Open to ages 9-12 and 13-16. New or experienced players are welcome. Cost: $125. Visit www.capitolhilllittleleague.org.

The Buzz is Broke!

Once again, the "Buzz fund" has been nearly depleted and distribution may have to end with the May issue. If you enjoy receiving The Buzz and would like to see it continue, please consider making a tax-deductible contribution. Checks should be made out to North Lincoln Park Neighborhood Assn. and mailed to (or dropped off at) 160 Tennessee Ave. NE.

Assuming we continue...

Volunteer distributors are needed for the 100 block of Tennessee Ave., 100 block of 11th St., 100 block of 15th St., 300 block of 14th Pl., 1100 block of E St., 1500 block of Constitution Ave., 1500 block of North Carolina Ave., and 1500 block of A St.

We are also seeking free or low-cost printing. If you can print even a couple of hundred copies, that would be very helpful and much appreciated.

The Capitol Hill Garden Club presents...

... "New Orchids," Tuesday, March 12 at 7 p.m. Tom Mirenda, orchid specialist for the Smithsonian Institution, will discuss the amazing array of new orchids we can expect to see in U.S. markets. ## Hill Rag Puts Local Crime Info On-line

Buzz readers have asked for more local crime and public safety information, but our monthly publication cycle doesn't lend itself to timely coverage. Fortunately for us, the Hill Rag has become a daily news operation online. You can find all about the latest public safety issues in The Blotter at www.hillrag.com; type 'blotter' into the search engine.

Maury at the Market

by Lisa Mangi

Save the Date!! Maury's flagship fundraiser, Maury at the Market, will take place Saturday, March 16 from 7-10 p.m. in the North Hall of Eastern Market. Come join your neighbors at this fun event that includes a silent auction and limited live auction for exciting items like hotel packages, restaurant and spa gift certificates and sporting event tickets.

Tickets are $30 in advance per person and $35 at the door and may be purchased from your favorite Maury family or at www.mauryatthemarket.org. The ticket price includes heavy appetizers and beer and wine, which have been generously donated by Tunnick's and other local restaurants. Last year's event raised over $60,000 and helps to fund teacher's aides' salaries and enrichment programs. Show your support for your community and join the fun on March 16!!!

Lincoln Park Renovation

By Nick Alberti, ANC 6A04

The National Park Service has announced that it will begin refurbishing the hardscape in Lincoln Park in late February. During construction, the east side of Lincoln Park will be closed to all traffic to repair the interior park walkways. This will affect pedestrian access to the playgrounds, center panel, bulletin boards and water fountains. The sidewalk around the perimeter of the park will remain open. They project that the park will be reopened by this coming Memorial Day, May 27.

Joy Kinard, Central District Manager -National Capital Parks, East, promises future updates will be available at www.nps.gov/cahi.
