Sustainable Transportation Plan

Every day, more than 93,000 students and 7,000 teachers commute to over 300 schools across the District. That means thousands of people driving alone, leading to traffic congestion and wear and tear on our roads.

Stressful commutes can put a damper on staff and students before they even arrive to school. Having a Sustainable Transportation Plan for your school is a great way to help educators and students discover transportation options between home and school. It also helps foster healthy and active travel habits.

goDCgo School Services can help you develop a Sustainable Transportation Plan that promotes biking, walking, carpooling, and taking transit to school.

Did you know?

A third of parents in the District drive their youngest child to school and nearly 75% of school staff drive alone to work.

However, nearly three quarters of families and school staff want more information about other transportation options.
